

Government officials ordered residents to remain in place at their homes except for essential activities, essential business, and essential government functions, including:

- ☐ Tasks essential to maintain health and safety, such as obtaining medicine or seeing a doctor.
- ☐ Getting necessary services or supplies for themselves or their family or household members, such as getting food and supplies, pet food and supplies necessary for staying at home.
- ☐ Engaging in outdoor activity, such as walking, hiking or running provided that they maintain at least 6 feet of social distancing.
- ☐ Caring for a family member in another household. Caring for elderly, minors, dependents, people with disabilities, or other vulnerable persons.

The shelter-in-place order also does not apply to those going to work in an essential business or essential government function. That includes:

- ☐ Health care operations, including home health workers. Essential Infrastructure, including construction of housing and operation of public transportation and utilities.
- ☐ Essential Infrastructure, including construction of housing and operation of public transportation and utilities.
- ☐ Grocery stores, farmers' markets, food banks, convenience stores.
- ☐ Businesses that provide necessities of life for economically disadvantaged individuals and shelter facilities.
- ☐ Pharmacies, health care supply stores and health care facilities.
- ☐ Gas stations and auto repair facilities.
- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Garbage collection.
- ☐ Hardware stores, plumbers, electricians and other service providers necessary to maintain the safety, sanitation and essential operation of residences and other essential businesses.
- ☐ Educational institutions, for the purposes of facilitating distance learning.
- ☐ Laundromats, dry cleaners and laundry service providers.
- ☐ Businesses that ship or deliver groceries, food and goods directly to residences.
- ☐ Child care facilities providing services that enable essential employees to go to work.
- ☐ Roles required for any essential business to "maintain basic operations," which include security, payroll and similar activities.
