Pastor's ponderings –

Lessons from a Donkey

From Rev. Alan Rudnick's article

What needs to be untied in our lives, so that we can praise and honor God? When it is untied and let go, nothing can stop the love of God and neighbor that is inside of us. Palm Sunday is the day when we, like Jesus' animal companion, are set loose to be used for the work of God.

One Palm Sunday scripture, Luke 19:28-40, is not like the others. Luke paints the picture of Jesus before his death with specific details. Christ is walking up to the city mount; it is quite a climb up to Jerusalem, which sits about 3800 feet above sea level. Earlier the evangelist has written that Jesus "set his face towards Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51), a prophetic phrase which means that Jesus' mission was with the Holy City.

Now Jesus has reached the edge of Jerusalem and must face his last meal with his friends, betrayal, trial, punishment, and finally death. So, how is he welcomed into the city? With joy, celebration, and anticipation. How ironic it is that some people who welcome Jesus as King would be among those who shout Jesus to his death.

Jesus instructs two unnamed disciplines to go into the village ahead and look for a colt (John 12:14 states that this animal is a donkey). Who were these two disciples—John and James, or Peter and Matthew—and why are they unnamed? Usually when disciples do something significant in the Gospels, they are mentioned by name. Apparently, Luke deems their assignment—to find an animal for Jesus to ride—to be of little importance.

Little did these two disciples know that their task was critical to the Palm Sunday event. They are to retrieve a donkey, which is perhaps the most overlooked character in the story. Unlike Baalam's donkey in the Old Testament, this one does not speak nor impart some divine wisdom.

This donkey was born for Jesus' wonderful work. It had not been used or ridden by anyone else. This donkey was tied up so that it could not wander away or be taken by someone else. It was waiting for Jesus to climb on to ride.

To modern readers the donkey seems to be an unlikely and surprising device for Jesus' use. That is because we see donkeys primarily as work animals capable of carrying heavy loads, or as docile creatures used for children's rides, but certainly not as the animals of choice to transport triumphant kings. In the ancient world, however, donkeys were used for ceremonial purposes. Whereas horses were symbols of war, donkeys were symbols of peace and often used to enact treaties.

There is more significance to the donkey in this story. Earlier I noted the donkey was tied up and had to be untied by the disciples. In five verses in Luke 19 the word "tied" or some form of it is mentioned. The detail is important. This donkey was created for a purpose and was meant for Jesus.

It was tied; it needed to be untied. Why does Luke emphasize this several times? There is an insight here. We are often tied aren't we? We are tied down by many things—by guilt, anxiety, and concern. Some of us are tied down with the need to forgive, but we cannot bring ourselves to do it. Others are tied down to obsessions or chemical dependence. We may be tied down to our smartphones and tablets, and be unable to put those devices down. Some need to let go and not be afraid to show love, peace, faith, joy, or the gospel to others.

As Christians, we need to be untied from what weighs us down. Palm Sunday is not just a celebration of Christ as King, but a celebration of Jesus as our liberator from dependencies and afflictions. We need to be free to experience Jesus in our lives. We are meant to ride with Jesus: to follow him on his journey to Jerusalem, the Holy City, the city where God dwells.

We were created with a purpose: to love God and love each other. As a pastor, I witness every day the real life troubles that bind people to dysfunction and they are too scared to untie themselves from the chains of fear. We cannot fully commit to God when we are tied. We must be released. We must surrender our burdens and our weights to God, much like the owner who surrendered his donkey to the two disciples. By relinquishing our own burdens, we can praise and worship God freely.

Palm Sunday is an occasion when we can ask ourselves, "What is it that needs to be untied in my life, so that I can praise and honor God?" Maundy Thursday we can eat with Jesus, be forgiven, and hear Jesus' promise to be our sustenance and salvation in the new covenant, and on Good Friday, we can bury what needs to be untied, loosened and disposed of with Jesus.

Then join us on Easter Sunday as we unite with the One who was tied on a cross to be our savior and who now gives us Resurrection Life!

Happy Easter!

HOLY HUMOR SUNDAY – APRIL 28TH!

During the 15th Century, the tradition of the Risus Paschalis (Easter laughter) and Latare Sunday, (“Rejoice/Holy Humor Sunday”) developed. The anthropomorphized Satan was believed to have no sense of humor so that humor, laughter and jokes theologially spurn Satan.

This humor represents the believers’ outward surprise and wonder at the Resurrection, with the joy of Satan’s overthrow. With such laughter, humanity could conquer Satan, affirming God’s triumph of the Resurrection and the annihilation of death.

To encourage this attitude of good humor, the priest would tell jokes or funny stories within the sermon. In the 16th Century, Martin Luther concurred: “The best way to drive out the devil, if he will not yield to texts of Scripture, is to jeer and flout him, for he cannot bear scorn.”

As an expression of the presence of the Holy Spirit, congregational laughter is often considered a hallmark of some Pentecostal church traditions today.

SO WE WILL LAUGH AT THE DEVIL ON SUNDAY, APRIL 28TH AT BOTH SERVICES! Bring your jokes – short, clean & funny. All will get to participate in the sermon time by jeering the devil with our laughter and jokes.

The Resurrection is the greatest joke played on the Devil. So let’s celebrate!

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Church Family,

When I say Church Family it also means Community of Faith.

Community can be described as the joining of two or more people who agree to organize themselves around the ways of Jesus and his command to love one another---caring, growing and serving. Community is God's desire for us –and a sign of a mature faith.

The Lord said, “It is not good for man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him” (Gen 2:18)

Adam and Eve were the very first community on earth-God, Adam and Eve. And here we are now surrounded by people. Do we really know each other in our LCR community? We worship on Sundays together... sometimes, we gather for the mid-week Lenten suppers and service... sometimes, we study the bible togethersometimes, and may even do social outings together.... sometimes, but is this the community God intended—the community of Jesus's followers?

Don't get the wrong idea worship, being alone in prayer and studying God's word all are important, but God also wants us to mature in faith by growing in our relationships with each other, thus we are growing in relationship with HIM!

Maturity takes time. It also takes each of us as brothers and sisters in Christ to help us mature. It's the process revealed in the New Testament in the "one other" language:

Love one another Regard one another more highly than ourselves

Forgive one another Teach and correct one another

Prayer for one another Encourage one another

Bear one another's burdens Serve one another

Be friends with one another, kind, compassionate, and generous in hospitality

Through this process it helps us to see Christ in Others, gives us a source of accountability and guidance, gives us place to worship and pray together, gives us a place to serve and strip away our self-interest, makes us ambassadors of God's love and makes us witnesses to the world of the gospel as a living reality.

Community should not be feared –It is meant to be a safe place to practice the way Jesus taught us to live. It is meant to be a safe place to have fun and enjoy each other's company. It is the place to enter into life as God intended it to be lived from the beginning—you, me and God!

The Lutheran Church of the Resurrection is a Community of Faith.

WE belong to the LCR Community of Faith

WE stay connected to the Community of Faith by caring for one another. serving one another , praying for one another and worshipping together.

We live in community by the 4 agreements listed on the next page.

Living in Christ's Love in community with others

Susan Centner

BE IMPECCABLE WITH YOUR WORD

Speak with integrity. Say only what you mean. Avoid using the word to speak against yourself or to gossip about others. Use the power of your word in the direction of truth and love.

DON'T TAKE ANYTHING PERSONALLY

Nothing others do is because of you. What others say and do is a projection of their own reality, their own dream. When you are immune to the opinions and actions of others, you won't be the victim of needless suffering.

THE FOUR AGREEMENTS

DON'T MAKE ASSUMPTIONS

Find the courage to ask questions and to express what you really want. Communicate with others as clearly as you can to avoid misunderstandings, sadness, and drama. With just this one agreement, you can completely transform your life.

ALWAYS DO YOUR BEST

Your best is going to change from moment to moment; it will be different when you are tired as opposed to well-rested. Under any circumstance, simply do your best, and you will avoid self-judgment, self-abuse, and regret.

MINISTRIES

MINISTRY OF COMMUNITY LIFE

March has been a month of Lent; praising the Lord with Mid Week services and fellowship. We are entering a time of rejoicing and happiness. The Craft Fair will be held April 13th. Please donate to the baskets that are raffled during the fair. The Craft Fair is a time to meet and greet the old and new to our church.

PSALMS

The prayer shawl group at Lutheran Church of the Resurrection has a name....

We are PSALMS : Prayers, Shawls, And Loving Ministry.

Do you know someone who would take comfort in knowing they are being prayed for? Someone who might need a physical reminder of His loving embrace? We invite you to bring them one of our Prayer Shawls or Prayer Cloths.

PSALM members have been busy knitting, crocheting and looming prayer shawls and cloths to provide to those who need them. We were able to distribute over 50 of them during 2018!

We welcome you to contribute to our Prayer Shawl Ministry in any of the following ways: One is by crocheting or knitting prayer shawls and/or prayer squares. Patterns are available if you need some project ideas. If you don't already know how to knit or crochet, come to a meeting and we will help you learn. The second way is to offer prayers for those who make the shawls and for those receiving them. And if you would like to keep those ladies' hands busy, consider donating a few skeins of acrylic yarn. It takes about three skeins of yarn to make one shawl. Brands like Red Heart and Caron work well, but if in doubt, we welcome gift cards to Wal-Mart, Michael's, Hobby Lobby or JoAnn's.

We usually meet the first Saturday of each month at 9:30 am in the conference room. Our next meeting is Saturday, April 6th.

Please consider attending and sharing your handiwork, fellowship and prayers.

STEWARDSHIP

Alive in the Spirit of Prayer

Back at the Monastery, centuries ago, we did a lot of praying, but we didn't go anywhere. But today, talk about spiritual exercise!

More people are praying while walking, jogging, driving, kneeling, and visiting church. Mobile praying is in. And I'm told the most popular prayers are for peace and prosperity, for the sick and distressed, for loved ones, for jobs, and for support of our ministries and food pantry.

One child prayed that her lost kitty would be found. That one was directed to St. Francis of Assisi, patron saint of pets. Soon after, kitty came home. Truly a wow, meow story!

With prayer, anything is possible!

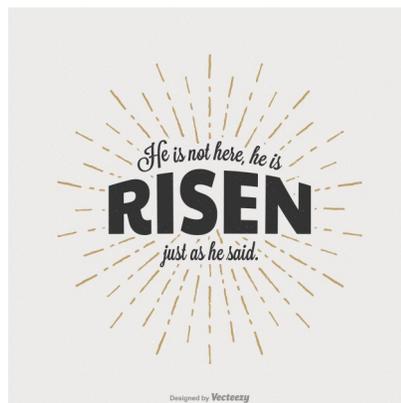

Go Quickly and Tell

We have a picture of the women going to the grave that first Easter morning to anoint the body of Jesus. It is barely light, and perhaps they are speaking in soft voices. Certainly there is an air of solemnity, of sadness, for their Master is dead. Their hopes are gone.

Then we see them before the open tomb, bewildered, then fearful, as they see an angel with “appearance like lightning and . . . clothes . . . white as snow.” The angel’s first words are “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.”

Perhaps some of us, too, have been bewildered, afraid. Even though we have always known the whole story – even though we look back on the Resurrection – we have been bewildered and afraid. Bewildered by circumstances in our lives. Afraid of the future. The angel says to us, too, “Do not be afraid . . . [Jesus] is risen, just as he said!” That truth makes all the difference, for, as Paul says, “Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep” (1 Corinthians 15:20). Christ, the firstfruits, and then we with him!

Hardly taking a breath, the angel gives a command to the women: Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: ‘He has risen from the dead . . .’ (Matthew 28:2-7). By faith, we, too, have seen the empty tomb; by faith in the Word of God, we know Christ is risen. The command is for us as well: go quickly and tell.

PINWHEELS FOR PREVENTION

PINWHEELS are the national symbol for child abuse and neglect prevention. The pinwheel represents our hope that every child will be raised in a healthy, safe and nurturing environment. It is also a call to action, encouraging people everywhere to recognize that children are our future and that we all have a role to play in keeping them safe.

All children deserve great childhoods.

Since 1983, when April was designated as Child Abuse Prevention Month, communities across the country have used this month-long observance to increase awareness of child abuse and its prevention. It is a time when individuals, schools, businesses, hospitals, religious organizations, and social service agencies join together to raise awareness of child abuse and neglect.

For a second year,
LCR will be planting several pinwheels together to make a "garden".

The pinwheels are one dollar a piece and all proceeds will go toward Prevent Child Abuse Illinois.

Buy a pinwheel for our church "garden" and for your home too!
